Personal Invitation to you:

If you are interested in Softball and are in the 4th to the 12th grade, we would like to invite you to the Larson Sports Center indoor batting cages for some fun every Sunday in the month of January! Nobody will be turned away from this activity. If you know of someone that would like to participate, they are encouraged to come.

Any parents that are interested in getting involved with softball skill instruction, you are welcome to give me a call.

Registration will be at the door
